KATRINA DODS

is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Katrina's developing practice includes a broad range of commercial litigation, professional liability, and class action matters.

Katrina completed her JD at Queen's Law. Katrina is passionate about advocacy and was deeply committed to the law school's moot program. Katrina was a coach for the Laskin Moot team, and member of the Wilson Moot team that was awarded third place team and second place facta. She facilitated the competitive moot program at Queen's Law as a moot court committee member. She also coordinated the only competitive moot at Queen's for 1Ls, and was the winner of this moot in her 1L year.

Katrina has served on the editorial board of the Queen's Law Journal and was a teaching assistant for an undergraduate constitutional law class.

Prior to law school, Katrina completed a Master's degree in Political and Legal Philosophy at Queen's University, and a Honours Bachelor's degree in Political Science at Western University. She is a former competitive debater, and served as the President of Western's Debate Society and the head judge of various national tournaments.
