

Matthew Sammon

MATTHEW SAMMON is a partner at Lenczner Slaght.

"Matt Sammon is a warrior of a litigator. He is fearless and takes on strong cases." — Chambers Canada

Recognized as a leading and formidable trial counsel, Matthew has extensive litigation experience across a broad range of areas, including complex corporate and commercial litigation, professional liability and medical malpractice, and employment cases.

After 20 years of practice at Lenczner Slaght, Matthew is now one of the most experienced civil trial lawyers of his generation, having conducted trials, applications, and arbitrations in myriad areas, including infrastructure and construction, complex commercial proceedings, insurance, medical litigation, professional liability, and employment disputes.

Matthew's experience as lead counsel for constructors in complex infrastructure and construction disputes in Ontario and other jurisdictions has earned him recognition as one of Canada's leading infrastructure lawyers.

His roster of clients has included large and mid-sized corporations across a wide range of sectors, including construction, financial services, insurance, banking, telecommunications, retail, health care, manufacturing, hospitality, and oil and gas. He also acts regularly for executives and other individuals in civil and regulatory disputes.

Matthew also has deep experience in professional regulation and medical malpractice litigation, appearing regularly as lead counsel in complex medical litigation and regulatory proceedings.

SELECT CASES

- Chief James Marlowe and the Lutsel K'e Dene First Nation v Mirza Mohammad Imran Karim Barlas et al – Counsel to the Lutsel K'e Dene First Nation and its elected chief in an oppression application (and related injunction) arising from allegations of breach of fiduciary duty, misappropriation, and fraud by the CEO of the First Nations' company.
- Mittra v Royal Bank of Canada et al – Counsel to RBC in this $10 million wrongful dismissal claim. After a three-week trial, the Court held that RBC had just cause to dismiss the plaintiff without notice. Reported at 2024 ONSC 636.
- Ratz-Cheung v BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc – Counsel to the defendants, Bank of Montreal, against a former employee in a matter involving damages for breach of contract and wrongful dismissal.
- Commercial Arbitration – Counsel to a property development company in a dispute regarding the sale of a partnership interest.
- Costco Wholesale Corporation v TicketOps Corporation – Counsel to the applicant in a successful application to have American arbitral awards and court judgments recognized and enforced in Ontario.
- Crosslinx Transit Solutions Constructors – Counsel to consortium of construction companies building Eglinton Crosstown Light Rapid Transit line.
- College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario v Cheng – Counsel to the Defendant Physician in successfully defeating claims of sexual abuse of a patient at a trial before a panel of the Ontario Physicians and Surgeons Discipline Tribunal.
- Assurant Life of Canada ats GFD – Counsel to the successful Respondent corporation in a breach of contract dispute concerning an alleged amendment to a contract.
- Zimmerman v McNaull – Counsel to Respondent Physicians in a successful interlocutory motion, seeking a declaration that the Plaintiffs had impliedly waived privilege over information upon which they relied for their motion to add the Respondent Physicians to the Plaintiffs' action after the presumptive expiry of the limitation period.

- Crosslinx v Metrolinx – Counsel to Crosslinx Transit Solutions Constructors in an application against Metrolinx and Ontario Infrastructure (HMQE) in relation to HMQE’s failure to declare an emergency as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Crosslinx is a design and construction consortium established to deliver and maintain the Eglinton Crosstown LRT, the second largest Canadian transit infrastructure project.
