

Welcome to* Our New§ Partner‡

Welcome to* the partnership, Madison Robins! Madison joined Lenczner Slaght as a summer student and has developed into an exceptional litigator, committed to the same excellence in advocacy that has made us Canada's leading litigation firm. We are proud to call her our new§ partner. Madison has a broad commercial and civil litigation practice, with a particular focus on shareholder and oppression claims, contract disputes, securities, insolvency, and professional liability. Her clients rely on her intellectual strength and strategic ability to develop creative and practical solutions to their complex disputes. Madison will be critical to our firm's success as our new partner‡. Congratulations, Madison!
