Sarah Gupta Joins Lenczner Slaghtâ€™s IP Team

Canada's leading litigation firm continues to grow its expert Intellectual Property group with the addition of another exceptional lawyer, Sarah Gupta.

Sarah's practice encompasses a broad range of intellectual property litigation, with experience in the areas of trademark, copyright, and patent law.

"We are delighted that Sarah has chosen to join our firm and our fabulous IP team," says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. "Our technology and pharmaceutical practice continues to be a key growth area and Sarah joins a strong group of excellent trial and appellate counsel specializing in IP matters."

Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght, Sarah summered and articulated at a leading national intellectual property boutique firm and then served as a law clerk to Justice Fothergill at the Federal Court of Canada.

Sarah completed her law degree at the University of Ottawa. While in law school, she researched copyright policy for Professor Michael Geist, served as a legal writing leader, and was a women's legal mentor. Sarah was also an avid mooter, placing as a semi-finalist and winning a best factum award at the Harold G. Fox Intellectual Property Moot. Before law school, Sarah obtained a Bachelor of Medical Science (Honours) and Master of Science in Physiology and Pharmacology from Western University.

Welcome, Sarah!
