Program Description

Cross-examination is a rigorous discipline that requires practice, reflection and more practice. Don't leave your cross-examination skills to chance. Save the date for this annual best-selling program that teaches you how to take and keep control of witness testimony so that it works for – not against – you. Learn how to develop and execute a successful cross-examination strategy from skilled litigators and judges. Dynamic demonstrations bring theory to life. Make this program an essential component of your advocacy skills-building regime.

Topics include: Planning and preparing for cross-examination • Witness control and credibility • Advanced issues and techniques in cross-examination • Impeachment

Register for the morning only featuring presentations by noted faculty, and dynamic demonstrations. Or stay for the full day including afternoon skills workshop for hands-on exercises. Workshop materials will be distributed electronically prior to the program. Advance preparation is required for the afternoon skills workshop.

NEW

If you are located more than 100km outside of Toronto, take advantage of the live webcast option that will allow you to interact live with the faculty. An additional afternoon hands-on workshop is available in Ottawa.
