Program Description

Knowing how to lead your case is one of the most important advocacy skills a lawyer must master. Set the stage for a winning result with this double value trial advocacy program. Noted judges and experienced advocates teach you how to win in the beginning by mastering the art of story-telling in your opening statement, and strengthening your case through comprehensive examination-in-chief techniques that lay the foundation for success. This program is designed for counsel of all experience levels who want to expand their existing litigation toolkit.

Register for the morning only featuring presentations by noted faculty, and dynamic demonstrations. Or stay for the full day including afternoon skills workshop for hands-on exercises. Workshop materials will be distributed electronically prior to the program. Advance preparation is required for the afternoon skills workshop.

NEW If you are located more than 100km outside of Toronto, take advantage of the live webcast option that will allow you to interact live with the faculty.
