7 Lenczner Slaght Litigators Appointed to Leadership Roles in The Advocates' Society

As recognized leaders of the bar, our lawyers will help advance the mission of Canada's leading organization for litigators – fostering a national, collegial community of advocates committed to excellence inside and outside the courtroom.

Congratulations to the following expert litigators on their appointments! In their respective executive positions, they will serve the professional development of TAS members by organizing educational programs, networking events, volunteer initiatives, mentorship opportunities, and more.

- Cassie Chaloux and Sahar Talebi Selected as Members, Young Advocates Standing Committee
- Aoife Quinn Selected as Member-at-Large, Labour & Employment Practice Group
- Aaron Grossman Selected as Member-at-Large,
 Construction Law Practice Group
- Christopher Yung Advanced to Vice Chair, Securities
 Litigation Practice Group
- Paul-Erik Veel Advanced to Chair, Class Actions
