

Bonnie Greenaway

is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Bonnie maintains a broad litigation practice, with a focus on complex commercial disputes and professional negligence.

Prior to joining the firm, Bonnie practiced at a national firm where she gained extensive experience litigating complex commercial disputes, professional negligence claims, and urgent proceedings for injunctive relief. She has appeared before all levels of court in Ontario.

Bonnie received her JD from Osgoode Hall Law School with Honours. She was the recipient of the McMillan LLP Award, the Sidney Peck Award, the Charles Edward Woodrow Award, the Irving Aaron, QC Prize in Real Estate Law, and the George M Miller Prize for Northern Ontario. While in law school, Bonnie participated in the competitive Walsh Family Moot, where her team earned first place. Bonnie was also a student volunteer with Pro Bono Students Canada and Parkdale Community Legal Services.

- The Devil is (Apparently, Not Always) in the Details: Court of Appeal Comments on Pleadings Requirement in Product Liability Actions – Pleadings continue to be a popular battleground in the product liability context. Over the years, a body of law has developed respecting motions to strike for negligent design, negligent manufacture and failure to warn claims. Nevertheless, there continues to be debate as to the specificity needed for pleading these types of claims. That debate is fuelled in part by jurisprudence demonstrating a high tolerance for claims that are arguably vague and lacking in material facts. Even where a claim is struck, plaintiffs are routinely permitted to amend their pleading.
