DOUG CHALKE

is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Doug's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and investigations.

Doug joined Lenczner Slaght after practicing at a top litigation boutique in New York City, where he gained extensive trial experience in a broad array of matters including defending clients accused of various forms of fraud, handling shareholder derivative actions, and representing individuals and business entities being investigated by the government. Doug also practiced in the New York City office of a leading international law firm, where he represented clients in multiple federal trials, winning favourable results for the clients.

Doug completed his JD at Cornell Law School, where he earned multiple awards including the Dean's Scholarship and the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Sports Law.

Prior to attending law school, Doug obtained an Honours undergraduate degree from McGill University, where he graduated with Distinction. Doug also worked as an LSAT Instructor and helped run a summer camp for underprivileged youth.
