Eli S. Lederman

ELI S. LEDERMAN is a partner at Lenczner Slaght.

Eli's practice covers a broad range of complex commercial litigation matters, including securities law, class actions, commercial contracts, franchise disputes, oppression and other shareholder litigation. He regularly acts for directors and officers of private and public corporations and advises boards and their committees on governance and litigation matters.

Eli has extensive trial experience in commercial litigation and in medical malpractice actions, and also acts as counsel in commercial arbitrations. He has appeared as lead counsel at all levels of court including the Supreme Court of Canada, the Court of Appeal for Ontario, the Court of Appeal for Alberta and the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

Eli represents clients in a wide range of sectors, including those in financial services, information technology, cybersecurity, real estate, franchising and manufacturing. Eli is a frequent speaker in continuing legal education programs particularly on issues relating to contractual disputes, securities law and trial advocacy.

Eli is also a member of the firm's Management Committee.

- Breaking down the Economic Barrier: Negligent Misrepresentation and Class Actions – Over the 25 years that Ontario's Class Proceedings Act has been in force, there have been fewer than 20 common issue trials. While class actions have the potential to remove access to justice barriers and improve judicial economy and efficiency, in Ontario their scope has been limited.
- Partial indemnity costs nearing the substantial indemnity scale in Ontario (Minister of Finance, Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund) v Chartis Insurance Company of Canada – In a recent decision, the Ontario Superior Court awarded costs on a partial indemnity scale which constituted 75% of the costs actually incurred by the successful party. The decision demonstrates the possibility of a generous costs award on a partial indemnity scale where the issues at stake are important and complex, and both written materials and oral submissions are of high calibre.
- Five Tips for Jury Trials – There's nothing like a jury trial. The Honourable Justice Brian Dickson famously commented that juries were “endowed with an abundance of common sense”. The virtues of civil jury trials to our justice system may be too numerable to list here. But as a point of advocacy, the exercise of telling your client's story to a jury of their peers – instead of to a judge sitting up on the dais – requires different skills, different sensibilities, and different presentation styles.
