

Jaan Lilles

is a partner at Lenczner Slaght and the head of the firm's Professional Liability practice group.

"Jaan handles all matters, no matter the complexity, and takes on every challenge with the same even-keeled approach. His recommendations are direct and to the point. He has achieved excellent outcomes for his clients despite challenging facts." — Chambers Canada

Jaan's practice includes a diverse range of litigation: professional liability, medical malpractice, commercial disputes, employment, and administrative law. He has appeared before all levels of court in Ontario, including as lead counsel in the Court of Appeal for Ontario, Divisional Court and the Ontario Superior Court of Justice and he has appeared in the Supreme Court of Canada.

Jaan regularly represents clients before administrative tribunals both as a prosecutor and as defence counsel. He has handled professional discipline matters before the Law Society Tribunal and several Discipline Committees of various regulated health colleges. He has frequently participated in judicial review applications and appeals from administrative tribunals.

A keen interest in the legal theory of privacy led Jaan to pursue a Master's of Law degree at the University of Toronto, where his graduate thesis was titled "The Common Law Right to Privacy." Jaan is a regular speaker at continuing legal education events and taught for three years as an adjunct professor at the Faculty of Law, Western University.

Jaan has been recognized as a leading lawyer by various organizations including Chambers, Lexpert, Best Lawyers, and Benchmark Canada.
