Lauren Nixon

is a law clerk at Lenczner Slaght.

Throughout the stages of an action, Lauren draws on her diverse background, often approaching the matter from different perspectives, to efficiently manage files and document production. Lauren assists on every aspect of file management, consistently putting forth her various skills and assets to the firm's benefit.

Lauren has almost 5 years' experience working within various areas of law while mainly focusing on civil and commercial law. Prior to joining the firm, she worked as a law clerk at boutique firms and gained extensive experience working in-house at one of Canada's largest and leading financial institutions. While specializing in mortgage enforcement and recovery, working with both senior counsel and external firms, Lauren continuously surpassed her client's expectations.
