Ravneet Minhas

is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Ravneet's developing practice includes a wide range of commercial and civil matters before all levels of Court in Ontario, as well as before arbitral tribunals.

Prior to joining the firm, Ravneet summered and articulated in the litigation department of an international law firm in Toronto. Ravneet earned her JD from the University of Ottawa, graduating cum laude with a specialization in International Law. As a law student, Ravneet completed extensive coursework in international arbitration, investor-state disputes, and public international law. She also competed internationally in the Foreign Direct Investment International Arbitration Moot.

Before starting her legal career, Ravneet built a diverse professional background spanning several industries. She has worked in venture capital, strategic consulting, and politics.
