Best Practices For Preparing Written Materials on the Commercial List

The blog, Best Practices for Preparing Written Materials on the Commercial List, authored by Madison Robins and Julien Sicco, was published on commerciallist.com. In the blog, they explain why form can be just as important as substance, and outline best practices for uploading to Case Center, filing factums, building compendiums of key documents and excerpts, preparing Aide Memoires, and blacklining draft orders against the Court's model orders.
