Jordana Sanft
416-596-1083
jsanft@litigate.com

Paul-Erik Veel
416-865-2842
pveel@litigate.com

Martin Brandsma
416-238-7397
mbrandsma@litigate.com

December 1, 2025

Class Dismissed: Copyright Reverse Class Action Fails to Get Passing Grade

Jordana Sanft, Paul-Erik Veel, and Martin Brandsma co-authored the article “Class Dismissed: Copyright Reverse Class Action Fails to Get Passing Grade,” published in Class Action Defence Quarterly. In this article, they examine the Federal Court of Appeal’s decision in Voltage Pictures v Salna and explain why reverse (or defendant) class actions remain a rare and procedural mechanism in Canada. They emphasize that, despite the theoretical efficiencies of certifying a defendant class, doctrinal constraints and practical barriers continue to make reverse class actions more an academic curiosity than a viable mainstream litigation strategy.

Continue reading:
https://litigate.com:443/assets/uploads/20260722-125457-9034-CADQ-Class-Dismissed-December-2025.pdf