

Fleming v York University

Counsel to York University in judgment enforcement proceedings arising from a multi-million dollar fraud against the University. Most recently, successfully resisted an application by a judgment debtor which sought to drawn down equity in assets available to York for enforcement purposes.

