International Bar Association's Annual Conference 2026

Monique Jilesen and Meghan Bridges spoke at the International Bar Association’s Annual Conference.

Monique Jilesen presented on the panel titled, AI Disputes: What Are They, Where Do They Arise and What Challenges Do They Pose, discussing disputes arising from the development and integration of AI technology into other products and services, including issues of liability that may involve multiple parties across the AI supply chain. She also addressed the advantages and limitations of arbitrating versus litigating these disputes.

Meghan Bridges shared her expertise on the session titled, Lions and Tigers and Bears, Oh My! Challenging Executive Decisions Made in Times of Emergency.
