Lenczner Slaght Honoured by Chambers Canada for Dispute Resolution

Canada's leading litigation firm takes first ever Chambers Canada award for Dispute Resolution Team of the Year

Lenczner Slaght was recognized by Chambers Canada as Dispute Resolution Team of the Year. The inaugural Chambers Canada Awards were presented on October 1, 2015, at Malaparte, TIFF Bell Lightbox.

The awards recognize Canadian law firms on the basis of outstanding work, impressive strategic growth and excellence in client service, from research conducted by Chambers & Partners for the inaugural Chambers Canada guide. They reflect notable achievements over the past 12 months.

The recently published Chambers Canada Guide 2016 lauded the firm as the 'highly sought-after boutique with noted market standing across the gamut of commercial litigation matters and extensive experience before the Supreme Court of Canada.' Quoting a client interviewed for the directory, "I am really impressed with the firm. They put their finger right on the problem."

Additionally, the inaugural edition recognized Lenczner Slaght as a leading litigation practice in the following areas:

- Dispute Resolution: Ontario
- Dispute Resolution: Nationwide
- Dispute Resolution: Class Actions (Defence)
- Dispute Resolution: Arbitration

The Chambers rankings are the culmination of extensive research with law firm clients and legal professionals.

"To be recognized with a team award is a testament to how our lawyers work so well together to support the interests of our clients," says Peter Griffin, Lenczner Slaght's managing partner. "It is rewarding to demonstrate to our clients that they have retained the very best to take on their legal challenges and to produce results that best achieve their business objectives".

In addition to the firm's rankings in Dispute Resolution and

Class Actions, 5 Lenczner Slaght lawyers also singled out with mentions:

- Alan J. Lenczner, Q.C./li>
- Ronald G. Slaght, Q.C.
- Ian Binnie, C.C., Q.C.
- Peter Griffin
- Tom Curry
