Lenczner Slaghtâ€™s R&R Lounge Receives Precedent Innovation Award

Precedent Magazine recognizes Lenczner Slaght's R&R Lounge among the innovative people, projects and ideas that are actively improving the legal profession.

The Lenczner Slaght R&R Lounge was introduced in 2018 as a direct response to Precedent Magazine's eye-opening critique of how cocktail parties can potentially alienate diverse candidates. Instead of adding another cocktail reception to an already exhausting week for law students, Lenczner Slaght created an inclusive space for law students to "relax and recharge" in between their in-firm interviews.

Congratulations to all individuals and firms recognized!

About Precedent Innovation Awards

For the first time, Precedent Magazine introduces the Precedent Innovation Awards. The awards showcase people, projects and ideas that are improving the legal profession by rethinking long-held traditions. The award winners have either improved the workplace, reduced costs or increased access to justice.
