Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Brieanna Miklaucic

Canada's leading litigation firm is pleased to announce that Brieanna Miklaucic has joined the firm as Counsel, further strengthening our health law practice.

Brieanna's practice focuses on assisting healthcare professionals in a variety of matters, including medical negligence, privacy issues, proceedings before the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, and hospital privileges disputes, among other administrative and regulatory law issues.

"We are delighted to welcome Brieanna to Lenczner Slaght," says Managing Partner, Monique Jilesen. "Brie's focus on professional regulation and her strong dedication to advocating for her clients' best interests will be a strong asset to our expert health law team!"

Prior to joining the firm, Brieanna summered and articulated at a full-service law firm in London, Ontario, gaining experience in a variety of litigation areas, including medical malpractice, class actions, and administrative.

Prior to receiving her JD at Western University, Brieanna completed an undergraduate degree in Chemical Engineering at Queen's University. She will leverage this background and a passion for research to find answers that effectively address the diverse legal issues faced by healthcare professionals.

Welcome, Brieanna!
