

Monique Jilesen
416-865-2926
mjilesen@litigate.com

December 13, 2017

MLB trying to steer 'Chief Wahoo' discrimination case away from Ontario human rights tribunal

Monique Jilesen is quoted in the Toronto Star article KMLB trying to steer 'Chief Wahoo' discrimination case away from Ontario human rights tribunal on December 13, 2013.

...

Monique Jilesen, a lawyer representing Cardinal, told court the only body that can remedy the infringement of rights — “and this is a rights case” — is the Ontario Human Rights Tribunal.

Jilesen and a team of other lawyers from the firm Lenczner Slaght Royce Smith Griffin LLP are representing Cardinal pro bono.

Continue reading:

<https://www.thestar.com/news/crime/2017/12/13/mlb-trying-to-steer-chief-wahoo-discrimination-case-away-from-ontario-human-rights-tribunal.html>