

Rampart International Corporation v Department of Public Works and Government Services

Counsel to Public Works and Government Services Canada in defending a procurement complaint before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal challenging the legitimacy of mandatory criteria in the procurement of pistols by the Department of National Defence.